

Copper Hill Inc. Announces Mary Cagle as Senior Director of Consulting Services

Livonia, Michigan (July 26, 2023) - Copper Hill Inc., a leading provider of trade compliance managed services, is pleased to announce the appointment of Mary Cagle as the company's new Senior Director of Consulting Services. With her extensive experience as a former U.S. Customs auditor and her proven expertise in trade compliance and client support, Mary will play a crucial role in assisting clients with a wide range of services.

Bringing over a decade of experience as a U.S. Customs auditor in the Charlotte, North Carolina Field Office, Mary possesses deep insights into trade compliance and regulatory requirements. Her unique background allows her to provide clients with valuable guidance, including conducting mock Customs audits to facilitate general trade compliance improvements, performing risk assessments, and preparing clients for Customs interviews and expectations. Additionally, she will serve as a reliable intermediary between clients and Customs auditors during official audits, ensuring a seamless and productive engagement.

"We are proud to announce Mary Cagle as the Senior Director of Consulting Services," stated Jenae Ciecko, CEO of Copper Hill Inc. "Her extensive experience and in-depth knowledge of Customs regulations make her an invaluable asset to our clients. Mary's expertise will bolster our ability to provide comprehensive support, enhance compliance measures, and deliver exceptional service to our valued clients."

Prior to joining Copper Hill Inc., Mary worked in the manufacturing industry, managing relationships with brokerage firms for an importer. She also served as a Customs auditor/consultant at an international law firm and a consulting practice. Mary joined the Copper Hill team in February 2021, and her commitment to excellence and dedication to client success have quickly made a positive impact within the organization.

Mary earned a BSBA Accounting Degree from Appalachian State University in Boone, North Carolina, in 2004. In 2005, she obtained her MBA with an Accounting Emphasis from Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina. Her ongoing pursuit of professional growth led her to become a Licensed Customs Broker in 2015.

With Mary Cagle as the Senior Director of Consulting Services, Copper Hill, Inc. is well-positioned to deliver unparalleled support and guidance to clients navigating the complex landscape of trade compliance.
